www.projectreconnect.uca.org.au www.facebook.com/projrecon

Liturgical Date: Year B, Epiphany 3, January 24th 2021

Presenter John Oh

Focus Reading Mark 1:14-20

Message 13 minutes 35 seconds “Where the Kingdom of God begins”

Discussion Starters

1. Should we have to leave our BOATS and change our lives?
2. How would you understand yourself as a new identity in Christ, and what is your ultimate desire in your faith journey?
3. Do you remember or know when or why your congregation came into being? What can be changed or not changed about the mission plan of your church?
4. How do we understand and interpret the meaning of Good News in our community? What is the Good News for our community today?

Other Lectionary readings for the day

Jonah 3:1-5,10 When Jonah flees on a ship from the Lord’s command, God sends a storm and reveals the reason to the frightened sailors.

Psalm 62:5-12 Hope and salvation are from God, “my strong rock’ (v7), who is worthy of trust. High or low estate or riches do not matter. Power and steadfast love belong to God.

1 Corinthians 7:29-31 Paul’s followers are to treat their worldly states of marriage, mourning, rejoicing, or doing business as though that was not their state for the ‘time has drawn short’ (v29) and “this world in its present form is passing away” (v31).
